Ten years. People, places, professors, passing, profanity, plans. . peace? Soap in the fountain, sandspurs, satisfaction, Saturday, Sunday, seriousness, suitcase-college, sensitivity.

One day there appeared seven miles from the Market House, a clearing in the woods by the side of Highway 401 north to Raleigh. They took people, buildings, the Establishment, hopes, failures—a composite they named Methodist College. Garber Hall, Cumberland Hall, Cafeteria-Student Union-Bookstore, Library, Gym, Classroombuilding, Sciencebuilding. Boiler Plant. Then—Sanford and Weaver, Music and Fine Arts, Hensdale Chapel, Fleishman's Pool plus a fountain, Horner Administration building, Annex to the Student Union.

Dances, professors, students, concerts, parties, teams succeeded and failed. A lot of change, a lot of complaining, a lot of apathy. Three o'clock soccer games and I-don't-care-what-it-is-you'll-stay-till-the-class-ends-at-four. "Where did j'all go? airportparty atHORNESORTHEDOWNTOWNERorthecourse.

When is change? Did it take ten years—will it take ten years? It is irrelevant; it is necessary; it is a concept; it is feared, dreaded but happens in spite of everythingaltogether. And it is methodist college. now. . . .

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Dr. Lucius Stacy Weaver
President

The sun set, but set not his hope: stars rose; his faith was earlier up: fixed on the enormous galaxy, deeper and older seemed his eye; and matched his sufferance sublime the taciturnity of time. He spoke and words more soft the rain brought the Age of Gold again: his action won such reverence sweet as hid all measure of the feat.

Methodist College Foundation is a separate non-profit corporation, which has the College as its sole beneficiary. It was established by the citizens of Fayetteville and Cumberland County for the purpose of providing financial aid and other support to the College. The Foundation Board is composed of 32 members who conduct an Annual Loyalty Campaign. Also fund raising efforts continue throughout the entire year by Foundation Directors and two full time employees. The Foundation and Development Office, located in the Horner Administration Building, has done much to meet the community and institutional need.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

Dr. George A. Finch
Chairman

Dr. Denise Wilkens
Miss Frances Garrett
Miss Nancy C. Massengill

Creativity and individual freedom are the two changing aspects recognized in the department of English. Students go through the basics of the English language studying its etymology and structure. Each student acquires a strong knowledge of the English language, whether filling requirements or as a major field.

Mr. Robert S. Christian

Mr. Raymond L. Conley

RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

Dr. Lorenzo Plyler
Chairman

Mr. Arnold Pope

Dr. Deryl F. Johnson

Dr. Samuel J. Womack
Dr. Garland Knott
Dr. Veselin Sarenac

And it came to pass that there would be a liberal arts requirement in Religion and the hours numbered six. To, every man who came unto the registrar upon his day did receive the Testament courses, Old and New. And some did choose to dwell in the department of Religion while others departed with haste. And those who stayed continued with much preparation to go and teach, and preach and direct Christian Education. To those who would preach, it is said that he who minored in philosophy did benefit greatly. So there went forth a decree that courses should be offered unto those who did desire the minor in philosophy.

EDUCATION AND PSYCHOLOGY

Dr. Fred C. McDavid
Chairman

Mr. Bobby L. Crisp
Mrs. Sondra M. Nobles
Mr. Bruce Shelley

Mr. Edwin A. West
Mr. Mason Sykes
Mr. Gene T. Clayton

Under the leadership of Dr. Fred C. McDavid the professors of the Education and Psychology department strive to answer the how and why of learning. Through student teaching, seniors are given the opportunity to experience education as it really is. With approximately fifty per cent of our graduates entering the teaching profession the Department of Education and Psychology is generally considered to be one of the stronger departments of the college.

Earth Day, 1970—In an effort to continue the purpose of this day, the Science Department added this year a course in ecology. The fall semester is dealt with by this department while the spring semester of the course concerns the sociological aspects of polution and population.

In the area of mathematics, emphasis is on a substantial background to aid those students who enter the field of secondary education. Methodist College is constantly searching for new methods to keep both its science and mathematics departments in step with the pace of change.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

An appreciation of the relationship between man and his society in the past, present, and future are the main objectives of the Social Science department. Course offerings in the areas of History, Economics and Business Administration, Political Science, Sociology,

Dr. John O. Tobler
Chairman

Dr. Clarence C. Hulley

Mr. Ray J. Kinder

Geography and Social Science (Ecology) constitute the format for this department. The Ecology course, Man and his Enviornment, was a new addition for the spring semester. This addition exemplifies the constant change in the demands of society.

The goal of the Fine Arts Department can best be summarized as expression through creation. Additions to the department include the major in art. Instructors and students periodically exhibit their work. Talent in the music department is shown in recitals by students, professors, and newly organized ensembles. Through music, art, and drama the Methodist College Fine Arts Department provides a strong cultural background for the community.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Miss Ann S. Thompson
Mr. Howard W. Reisinger, Jr.
Dr. Maria Salas-Calero

Dr. Yolanda Martinez Cowley
Mrs. Ingeborg M.B. Dent
Dr. Veselin Sarenac

Keeping in step with the times, Methodist College has introduced elementary Russian as an elective to its Foreign Language Department. This supplements the courses offered in French, Spanish, and German. The seven professors, representing four different native countries strive to help the students understand and appreciate the beauty of a foreign language.

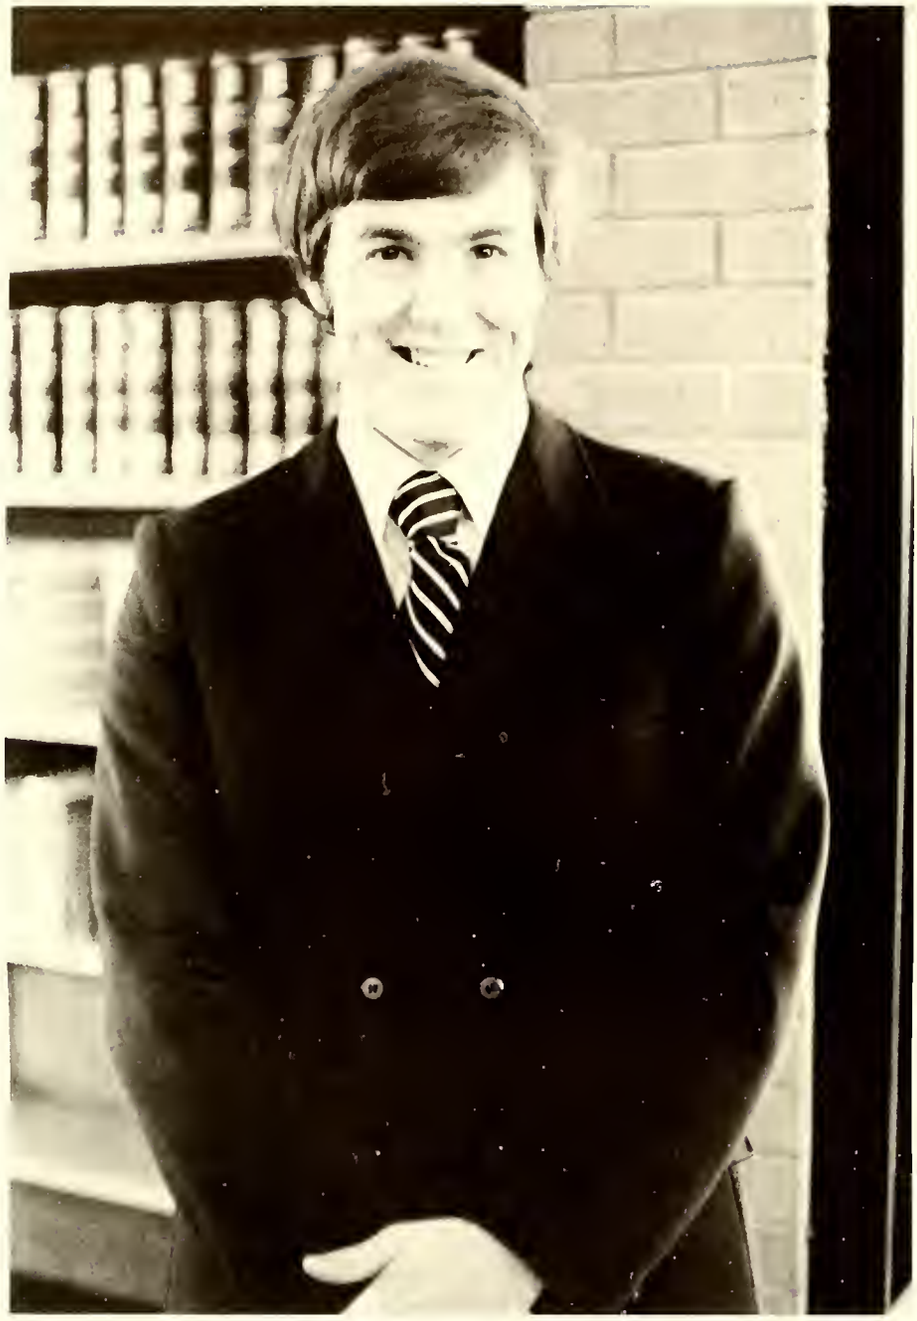
STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION



John Brown, president

Kitty Cook, secretary

The Student Government Association serves as the supreme executive, legislative, and judical instrument for directing student life and providing democratic student government in all phases of student activities. This year's student administration has striven toward the goal of liberalization with responsibility. Two of the planks in the platform of SGA president, John Brown, were to stop vandalism in the dorms and the institution of the early semester system. The president's council has tried to promote better entertainment. The image of the SGA this year has been that of a leader with greater responsibilities. Hopefully, next year the SGA will be able to continue as an organizer with individual groups and individual people.

Virginia Aydlett, treasurer

John Williams, entertainment president

Don Leatherman, vice president

SSL has often proven itself to be a good ambassador for Methodist College. During the 1970 legislature it received recognition for having the best small college bill. Their efforts have given recognition to the Methodist among our fellow colleges. Under the leadership of Natalie Schwoyer this year's bill seems to have fine promise. This bill concerns the abolition of the requirement for parental notification for the treatment of veneral disease in a minor.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

David Herring '65, vice-president; Mrs. Mason Sykes '68, secretary; Donna Davis '68, bd. of dir.; Tommy Yow '66, president. Not pictured are Jim Darden '69 and David Hatchell '69, board of directors.

The purpose of the Methodist College Alumni Association is "to promote the general welfare of Methodist College and to encourage and stimulate the interest of graduates and former students in the college and in each other." Alumni chapters exist in several states. An Alumni Liaison Committee visits the campus each year to talk with faculty, adminstration and students. An annual giving program is conducted.

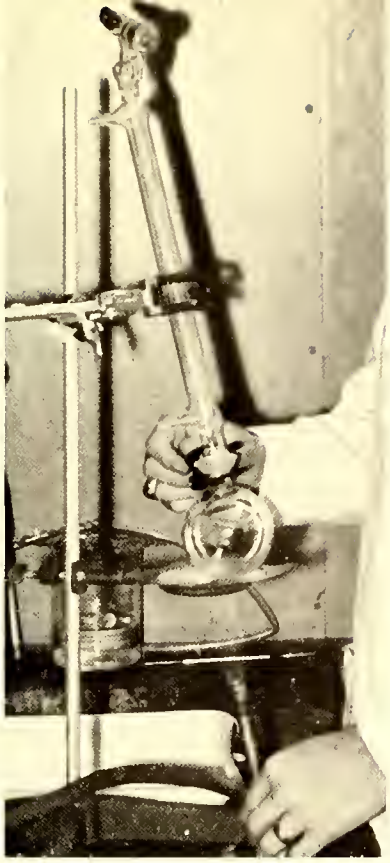
STUDENT EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

SEA is composed of students interested in education. The SEA banquet is one of the highlights of the year. Officers are Wanda Cameron, president; Peggy Brown, vice-president; Janette Chason, secretary; and Wanda Adams, treasurer.

Standing: Frank Hayes, Jo Anna Kinlaw, Jim Woffbrandt, Laura Johnson, Doug Parrish, Ben Esquibel. Seated: Anita Williams, Mike Alloway, Margie Zellner.

Mike Alloway is organizer of Ethos, Inc. Linda Connolly is secretary-treasurer. The central committee is composed of Walt Gaskins, Lynn Spence, Jim Rowland and Joe Deich. Ethos, Inc. is composed of sociological oriented persons of the Methodist College community. This year's agenda has included contribution of Christmas gifts and time to mentally retarded children and lectures on marriage and the family by the guest speaker, Dr. Leslie, chairman of the sociology department of the University of Florida.

SCIENCE CLUB



The Science club is composed of students interested in science and mathematics. This year the Science club, joined by interested students and in accordance with Governor Bob Scott's appeal, carried out a roadside clean-up campaign. Guest speakers and field trips round out the agenda for the year's program.

ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS CLUB

Seated: Howard Lupton, executive office; Tommy Smith, president; Susan Garrick, secretary; Standing: John Roberts, Paul Marshall, Joe Rhue, Ben Cavin, Bill Costin.

The Age of Chivalry is gone; that of sophisters, economists and calculators has succeeded.

Edmund Burke

Many Methodist College students are aware of the truth of Edmund Burke's statement and have consequently chosen to major in business administration. Some few of these students have banded themselves together to suppliment their classroom instruction with guest speakers and group discussion. All business students are urged to join this group to make it a more functionable organization.

HISTORY AND POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB

The History and Political Science club is one of the most enthusiastic clubs on campus. The club is composed of students who are interested in the area of history and political science service. This year club members went to Raleigh to tour the Archives, went to 82nd Airborne and the JFK museum, started a library of catalogues for graduated schools, had a UN speaker for UNICEF, and sponsored a program by Carol Forbes, a Women's Rights Speaker. Several faculty members spoke, also. The club reached another milestone this year—for the first time in four years they were out of the red!

LITERARY CLUB

Seated: Miss Frances Garrett, advisor; Maurine Davidson; Martha White and Patricia Abernathy, associate editors; Janet Graham. Standing: Wayne Rogers and John Williams, business managers; Ralph Miller; Harry Holman, editor.

The Literary club offers an opportunity for M. C. students to display their literary talents. This year the club held a book sale to finance the publication of student compositions. A new format and a new name for the spring publication of the literary magazine is expected.

KARATE CLUB

Kneeling: Dennis Choy Wayne Rogers, Mike Doug, Edward Takae, Charles Watson, Jack Mark, Chet Makowski, Earl Choy. Standing: Martha White, Alfie Wallin, William Lloyd, Dale Dutcher, Kim Nazarchyk, Anita Williams.

The Methodist College Karate Club, under the instruction of Mr. Edward Takae, head instructor, and Mr. Jack Mark, assistant instructor, is now in its second year. After the enthusiasm shown last year, the club has been even more successful this year. With both men and women, the response has been even better than last year. The club offers self-defense classes for girls. There are three black belts in Karate and one in Judo who help to instruct theses clases. It is also through the efforts of the Karate Club that P.E. classes in self-defense have been established for girls.

Charles Watson, President; Wayne Rogers, Vice-President; Chet Makowski, Treasurer.

ART CLUB

Beth Suddreth; Mr. Donald Green and Mrs. Eleanor Howell, advisors; Caroline Milner; Paul Marshall; Susan Brown; Angie Vurnakes; Thom Cory, visiting artist; Cathy Alkis; Mrs. Thom Cory; Carleen Wagnor; Cary Butler; Dianne Scoggins; Mary Alice Leimone; Dale Dutcher; Robbie Marsh; Chris Bryan; Kaye Walker; Jack Corback; Larry Barnes; Debbie Schaefer; Jim Cutler.

Club members listen as a visiting artist, Thom Cory, discusses his exhibit in Reeves auditorium.

Whatever the art club does is sure to be spectacular and different. With the addition of an art major at Methodist this year new enthusiasm was cultivated within the art club. The club sponsored exhibits of students, faculty, and exterior sources.

WIND ENSEMBLE

The highlight of first semester for the Wind Ensemble was their winter concert. During the spring semester, the group divided into a woodwind quartet, saxaphone ensemble, and stage band. Under the direction of Mr. John Rider these musicians provide entertainment for the college community at athletic events, assembly programs, and concerts.

CHORUS

The Methodist College Chorus is a select group which is active in providing entertainment at school functions as well as off-campus events. The Chorus has performed in 13 states and is well-known in North Carolina singing in many churches and for many civic events. The Chorus performed Bach's Christmas Oratorio in December with the Fayetteville Community Chorus and the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra. Their annual tour took them as far south as New Orleans, La. this year. The Chorus presented its annual Spring Concert in May. Of the 40 members, 15 are music majors.

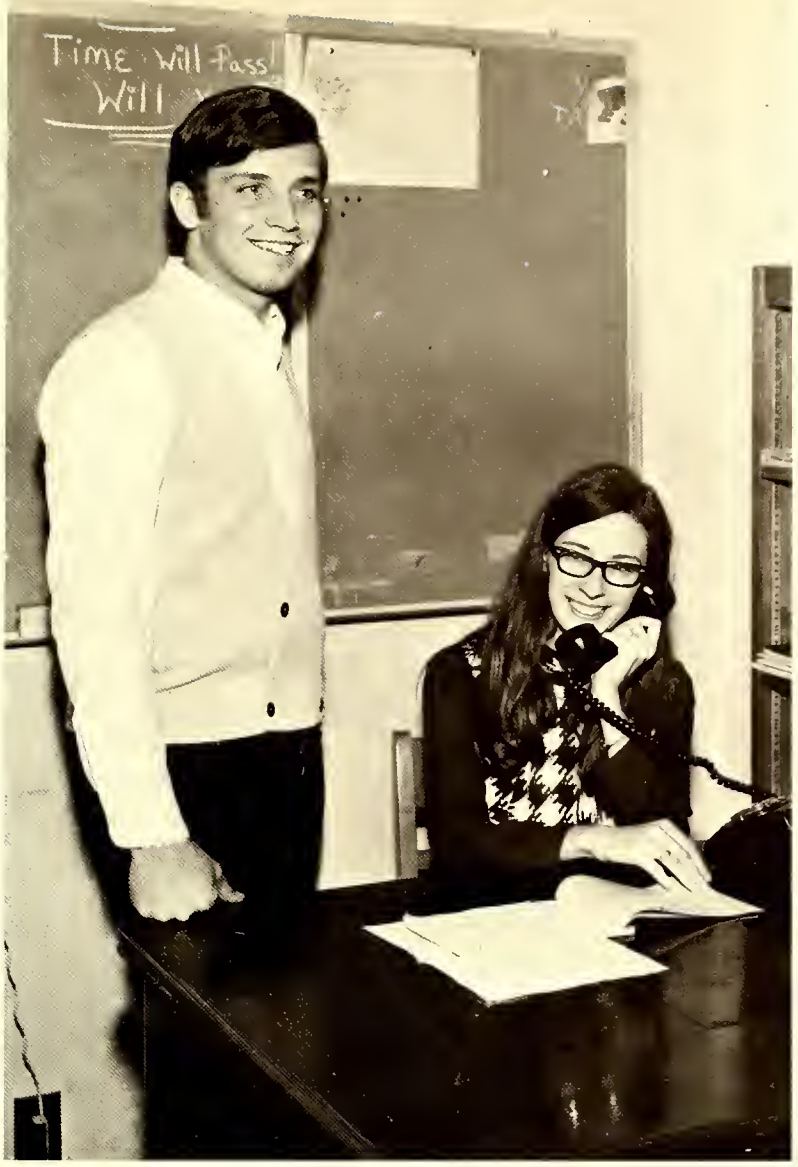
GREEN AND GOLD MASQUE KEYS

The campus drama club is the Green and Gold Masque Keys. Once or twice each year all interested students are asked to participate in a dramatic production. These photographs were taken while the club prepared for Jean Anouilh's The Lark. Mr. Parker Wilson is the club's advisor and drama director. The officers are: Phil Baugess, president; Jim Wolffbrandt, first vice-president; Maurine Davidson, second vice-president; Anita Williams, secretary; and Becky Estes, treasurer.

Selection of photos can be rather amusing as evidenced by Bill Costin, Craig Kinsey, and Ben Cavin.

Sharon St. Clair, Don Snelgrove, Carolyn Plaster, and Dory Kestner review plans and compose copy.

Typists and assistant were Jane Stroud, Kathy Woltz, Peggy Brown and Gary Archer.



How best can one commemorate ten years and yet present a challenge to the future? On a hopeful night in September, 1970 a band of concerned M. C. students met with this goal in mind. Faced with a deficit budget, no photographer, one beat up typewriter, but with a lot of hope they took the first step in producing another yearbook. Now eight months later the final product has arrived. We leave the final judgment with you.

sMALL TALK the student newspaper for Methodist College. This publication allows student journalists the opportunity to apply their talents. At the initiation of its publication, the very title sMALL TALK, indicated that student voice on campus was unnoticed, however, sMALL TALK, has served in the vital role of helping to prove that student voice is a powerful influence. What does sMALL TALK contain? Editorials, feature articles, faculty profiles, athletic reports, grips, student advertisements, but most of all the exchange of ideas.

CIRCLE K CLUB

The Circle K club is an exclusively male, service club. During the past year the club members painted the campus trash cans, gave coal and food to a needy family during the Christmas season, and planted around Hensdale Chapel. These projects were financed by the sale of drinks at the soccer and basketball games and the annual Miss Boiler Plant pageant. Unifying young men in service to their fellow men is the goal of the Circle K club.

ESPERANZA SPANISH CLUB

Interested students of the Spanish language are encouraged to join and participate in the Esperanza Spanish Club. This club seeks to assist students in their study and use of the Spanish language. One interesting point of concentration is the study of Spain and all facets of life there. A bazaar is scheduled for the spring semester.

KOINONIA

The Christian Fellowship on campus, commonly known as Koinonia, is controlled by a Steering Committee headed by the president of the group. It was through the efforts of this committee that Koinonia has achieved many of its goals. It has sponsored Sunday evening vesper programs in Hensdale Chapel, and the Second Annual Faith and Life Week in February. The speaker this year was Don Welch, Dean of Students, Wofford College in South Carolina. In December, Koinonia sold items for the Cumberland County Sheltered Workshop.

The Methodist Student Movement, despite its poor membership was rich in spirit. MSM continued the tradition of sponsoring the service of Holy Communion at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. It is hoped that this tradition will become a standard part of Christian life on our campus. The highlight of the year was the annual Christmas caroling party. Despite a faulty transmission in one of the college vehicles, a cheerful spirit was maintained as our little group marched through College Lakes and Kinwood.

THE YOUNG REPUBLICAN CLUB

The Young Republican Club has just recently been reorganized at Methodist College. Its goal is to arouse support for the Republican party on campus and aid the cause of the Republican party in local, national and state elections. The officers are: Richard Bass, president; Charles Adams, vice president; Bob Beard, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Cooper is the club's advisor.

TOURNAMENT

St. Andrews 1 ..... Methodist 0

This year's soccer team suffered many defeats as the team lacked experience and was hurt by many injuries throughout the season. Steadily improving, the Monarchs showed results from their hard work by winning their last two games. The team showed considerable strength and teamwork in tournament competition. The Monarchs placed one player, Kit Cholwilbul, on the All Conference team. Tommy Brown, Tommy Spence, and John Brown received honorable mention showing that the team had potential and talent. After this rebuilding season, Monarchs expect a finer season next year.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross country success requires dedication, hard work, and team effort. This year's cross country team reflected these qualities and gained respect from every team with which it competed. Hard work enabled them to take first place in many meets. David Patrick, a freshman runner, took first place in the conference tournament. Injury and sickness at the close of the season prevented the team from showing its full potential in the tournament meet.

With each member of the team returning prospects for a winning season are very good.

Five junior college transfers, two returning starters, and talented freshmen carried Methodist's basketball team through another winning season this year. With a lack of height, the team won most of their games with their speed, conditioning and team work. Bobby Hodges, a senior, led the Monarchs as team captain and playmaker. The success that the team experienced created much interest among the students. Great expectations are held for another successful season next year.

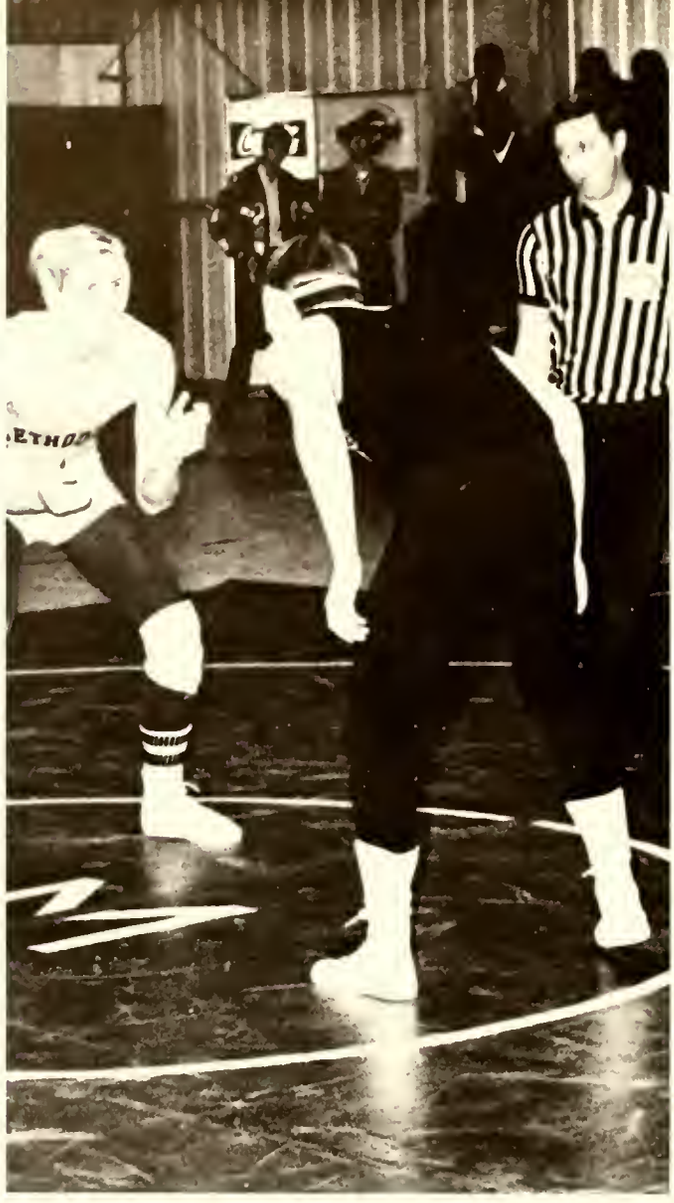
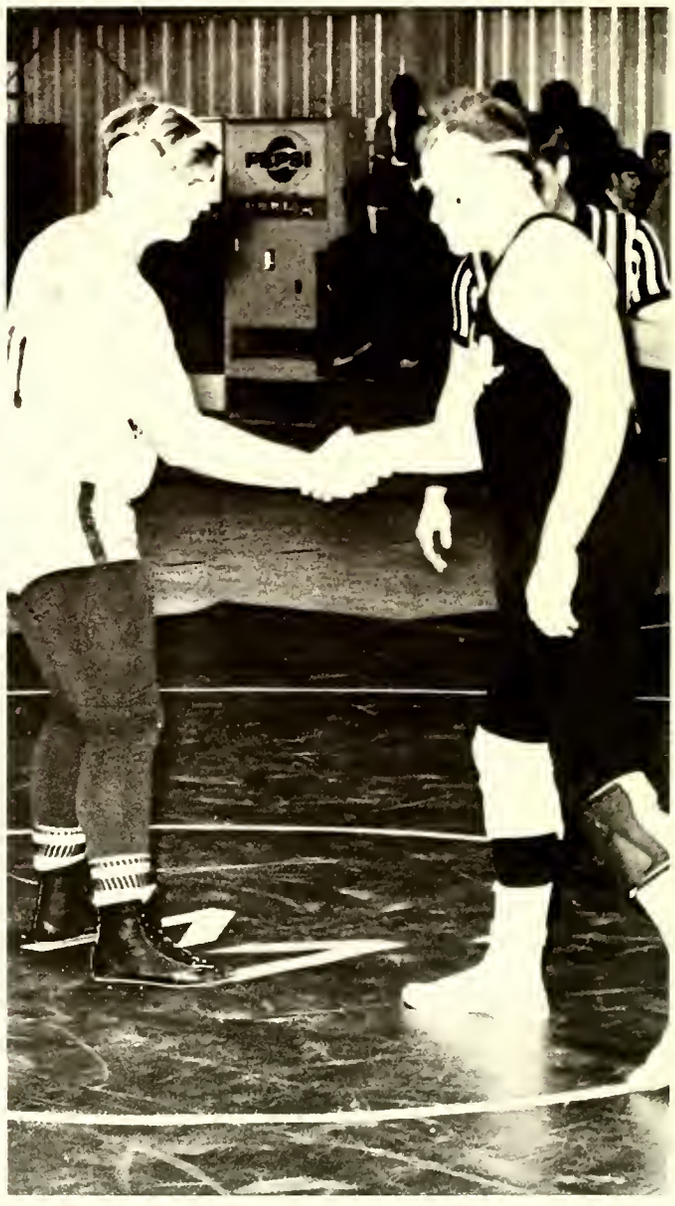
WRESTLING



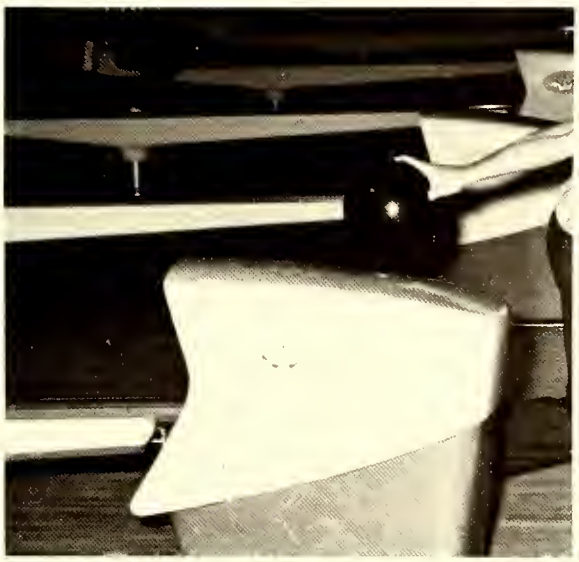


Wrestling, an exciting sport, drew many spectators as the season progressed, even though the Monarch team was handicapped due to lack of interested wrestlers. The team at the beginning of the 1970 season consisted of only two upperclassmen, the remainder being freshmen. Even with the lack of unified experience the wrestlers showed fine form.

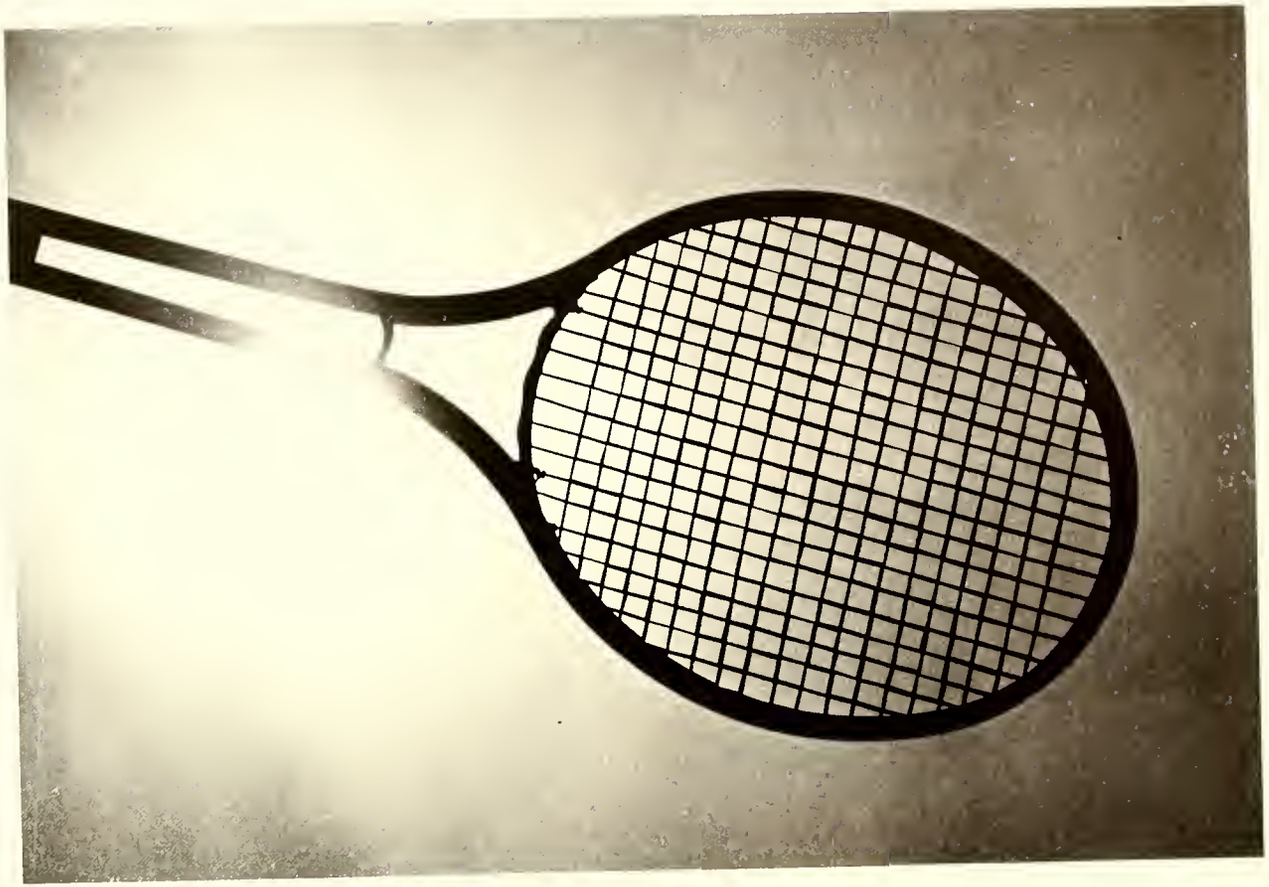
Kneeling: Roger Dodds, Gene Dillman, Tommy Spence, David Patrick. Standing: Mason Sykes, coach; David Rossel, Howard Sorber, Ken Valentine, Charles Adams, Jerry Jackson, manager.

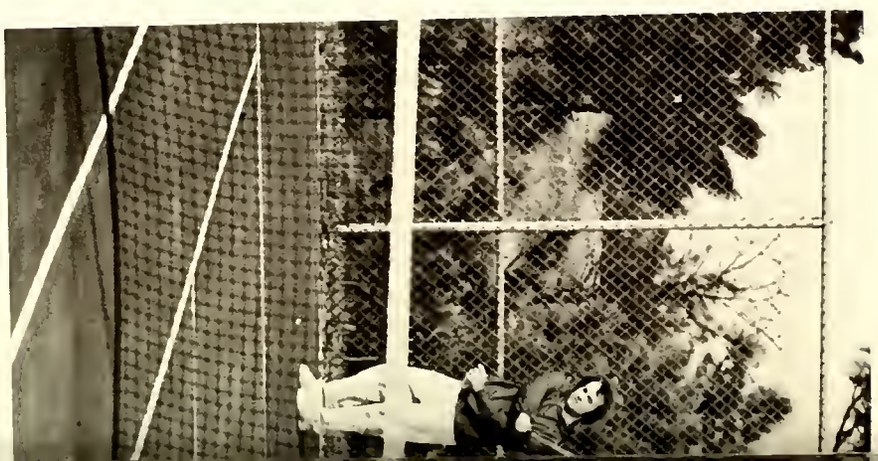
BOWLING

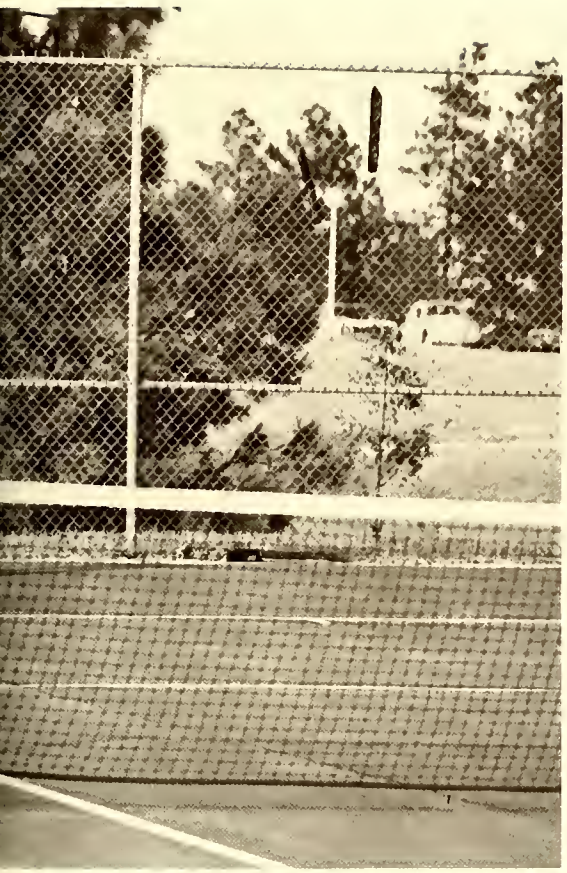
The 1971 bowling roster:
Danny Fowler
Bob Hamilton
Bill Donald
Fred Puryear
Ben Esquibel
Steve Edwards
Bill McDole



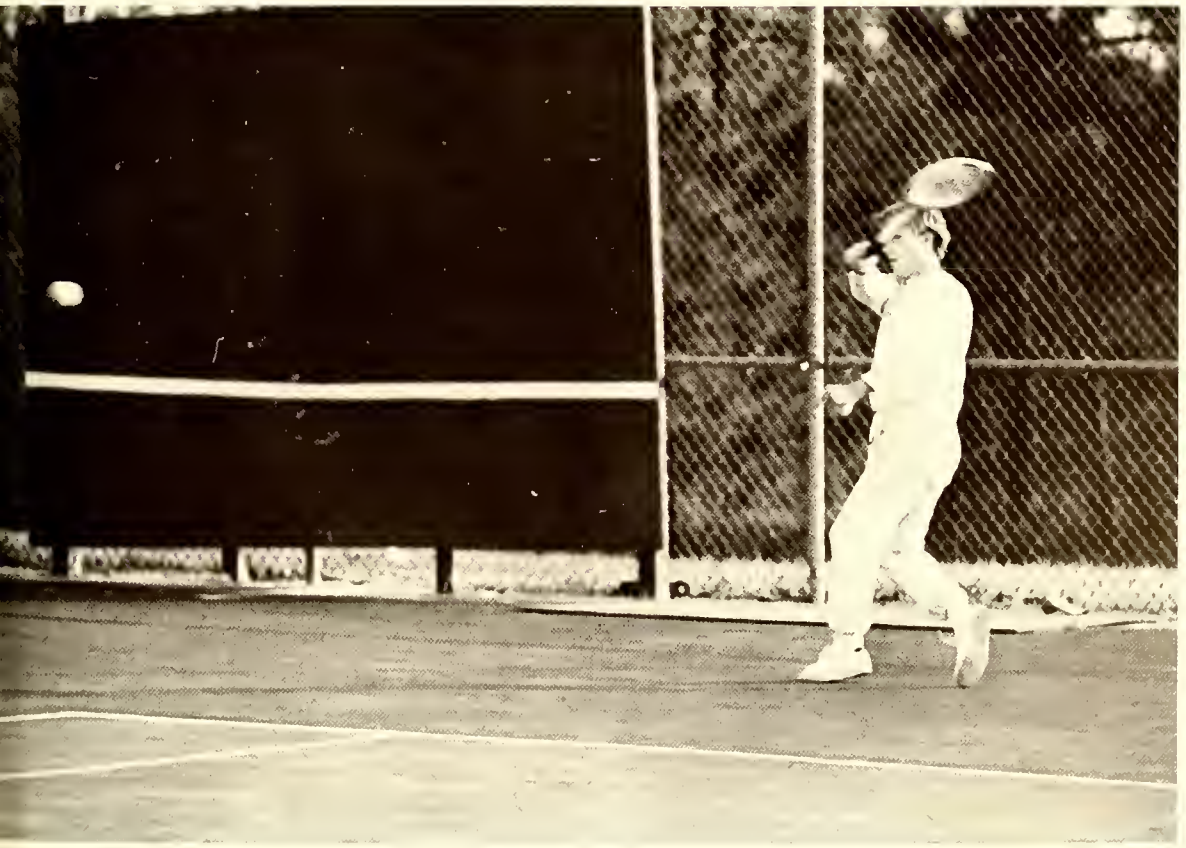
TENNIS

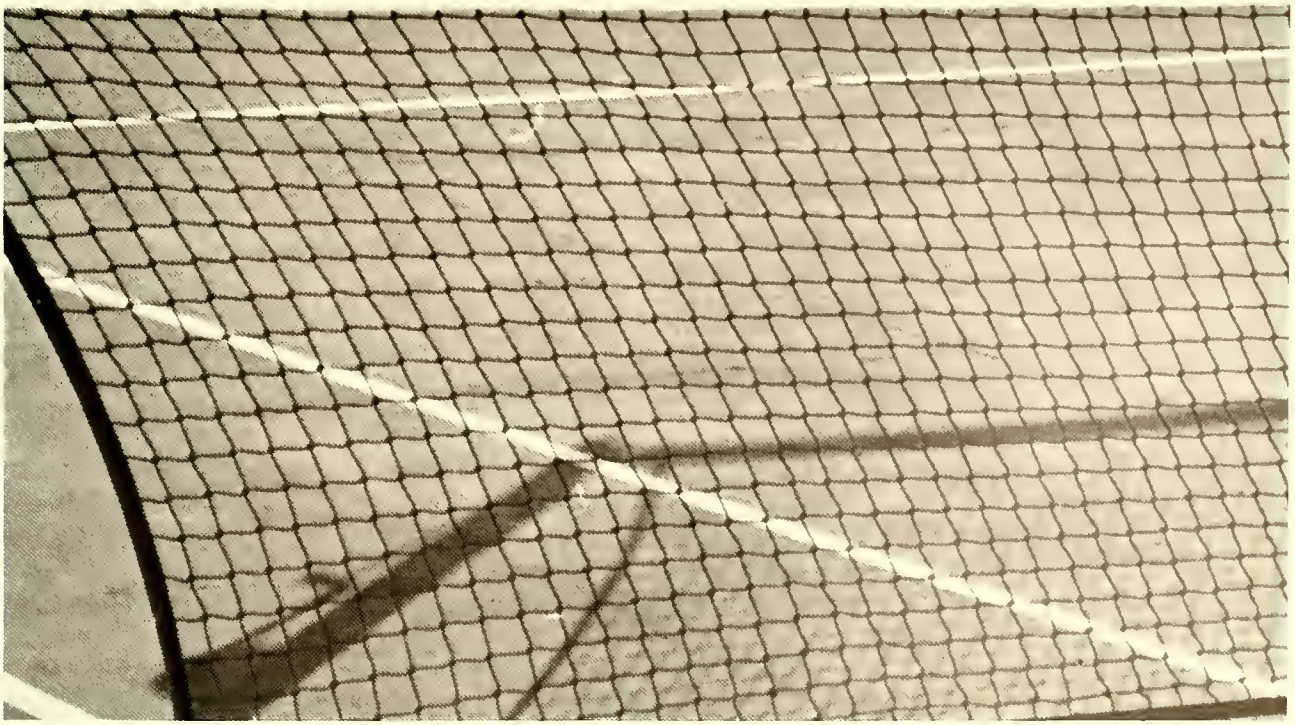






One of the greatest successes for the Methodist College's 1970 tennis team was to have one its members, Bentley Hill, enter the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics tennis tournament at Kansas City, Missouri. Although he lost in the fourth match, he represented his alma mater well. Much thanks and praise should go to both he and coach Mason Sykes. With this spirit behind them the team looks forward to another successful season in 1971.





BASEBALL

Although the 1970 baseball season was not as successful as anticipated, thanks should go to those who faithfully practiced and worked for the M. C. team. With completion of the new field and dugouts, baseball may well come into the limelight of spring athletic activities. Recruiting for this year has produced a large field of boys trying out for the various positions. With abundant ability and with a willingness to work, the coming season is filled with great expectation.

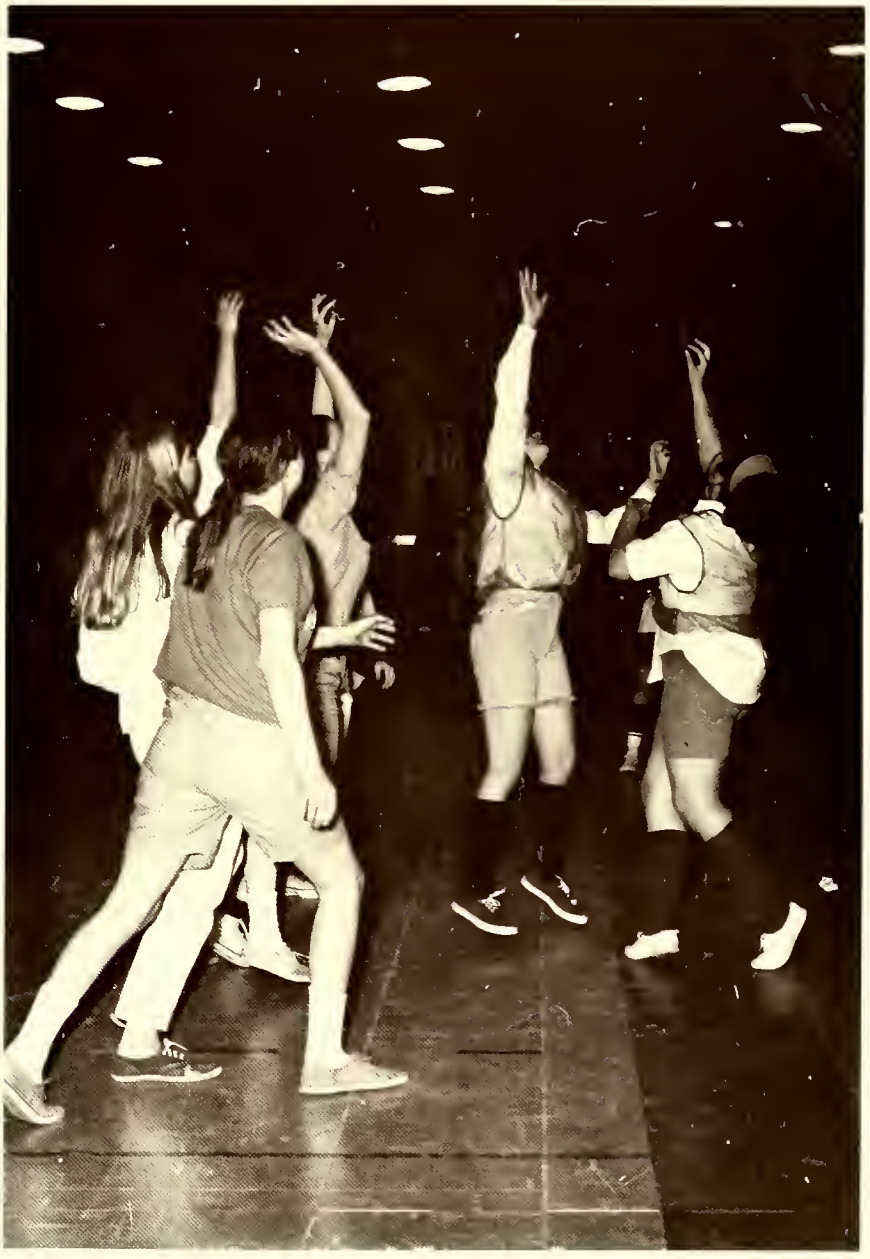
SOFTBALL

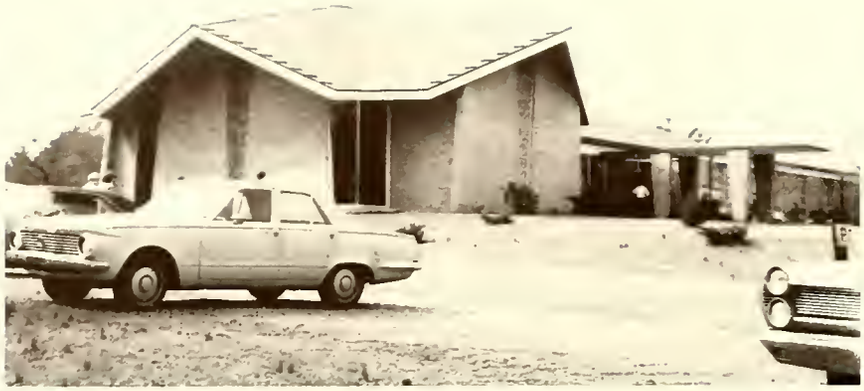
The intramural sports program is sponsored under the direction of the athletic director, Mr. Gene Clayton. This program allows those men who are either unqualified or unable to participate in the varsity sports program an opportunity to participate in their favorite sport. This organization also allows for the growth of sportsmanship and the spirit of competition among dorms and different dorm teams. An ever increasing number of day students are beginning to participate in this program. No other qualification than the desire of good wholesome athletic recreation is necessary.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Women's Athletic Association is an organization of the student women for the purpose of providing athletic competition for them. This organization must be recognized for its role in promoting much school spirit. The Carillon staff apologizes to this club for the lack of up to date pictures. Because of conflicting schedules and wrong turns cameras and people were never available at the same moment. Nevertheless we salute these women for their efforts at Methodist College. The officers are: Mary Ellington, president; Kathy Holland, vice president; Rina Janey, secretary; Dianne Hatchell, treasurer. Robbie Morrison and Irene Hondros are day student representatives. Mrs. Sondra Nobles is advisor.



DISASTER — CONCERN



On February 22 disaster struck Fayetteville. A tornado came within three miles of the college campus. The aftermath of the storm revealed devastated dwellings, business firms, and private property. Many were injured and two deaths resulted from the twister. In the ensuing days the community massed itself together to aid the victims. Among this group was a gathering of Methodist College students. Using Peace Presbyterian church as headquarters, about sixty students began collecting clothing, furniture, and food staples from the vicinity of Methodist College. Donations were also received from the individual students and dorms. Working in cooperation with Dr. Weaver, the department chairmen and Mr. James Black, pastor of Peace Presbyterian church, the students were able to amass a great quantity of goods for the tornado victims. This was one small expression of concern and thanks from M.C. students to the Fayetteville community for their support toward the development of Methodist College.

HATS OFF TO FRESHMEN

The end of the first month of the frshman class's life at Methodist College is annually marked by the Hats Off to Freshmen Dance. The dance is sponsored by the senior class and officially marks the last time freshmen are required to wear their beanies. All of the events of the first month are planned with the intention of unifying the freshman class and introducing them to the rest of the college community.

FRIENDS OF DISTINCTION

In spite of rain, lightning and one tornado the Friends produced a very good show. Enjoyed along with other popular songs were three of their biggest hits, "Love, Oh Let Me Be Lonely", "Circles," and "Grazing in the Grass."

HOMECOMING

Homecoming 19770. A bonfire and pep ralley. Miss Boiler Plant, 1970. Miss Isabella. The game was against St. Andrews. (They were against us). Vicki Barefoot was crowned Homecoming Queen. Hard and acid rock with a little folk music on the side. Kalabash played in the Union for the Homecoming Dance. Lumbee, Warm, and Liquid Smoke, gave a concert on Saturday. Sunday was the morning after . . . .

MISS BOILER PLANT

Miss Boiler Plant pageant is an annual event at Methodist College. The Circle K Club sponsors this all male bauty pageant as a fund raising project. This year Miss Isabelle Cox, alias Bill Presnell, was the recipient of the coveted title. "It" was crowned by the reigning Miss Goldie Box, George Cox.

FAITH AND LIFE WEEK

The annual happening of Faith and Life Week occured this year during the week of February 15 through 19. The main theme of the week was "Difficult, But Not Impossible." Mr. Donald J. Welch, Dean of Students of Wofford College in Spartanburg, South Carolina was guest speaker for the week. On Monday night the movie,"A Raisin in the Sun," starring Sidney Poiter was presented in Reeves Auditorium. On successive nights the subtopics, Brotherhood, Business Ethics, Peace and Living a Christian Life on Campus, were discussed in dorm discussion groups, dinner meetings and wherever concerned students met. Koinonia, under the direction of Larry Lugar, was responsible for the success of the week's activities.

IMPOSSIBLE:

Larry Lugar, president of Koinonia; Don Welch, guest speaker; and Bill Presnell, dorm host, discuss the agenda for Tuesday evening.

We are now in our eleventh year of instructional service as an educational institution of collegiate grade. The first decade of instruction is complete. This is the fifteenth year of the corporate life of the college. One year after the charter was granted was spent by the Board of Trustees in setting up an administrative organization and doing preliminary research. Three years were spent in planning and erecting the initial buildings.

During the years which have intervened since the granting of the charter, a college plant has been completed with the exception of one major building and one or two minor additions to our physical facilities. A curriculum, emphasizing the liberal arts and sciences, has been devised and is constantly being revised to meet the changing needs of our society. A competent and dedicated faculty has been assembled. Student organizations have been created placing responsibilities for self-government in many important areas in the hands of the students.

One of the most important achievements attained during these years was full regional accreditation. This was accomplished in the minimum time possible for new institutions. At the opening of the present academic year, this accreditation was reaffirmed. Statistices indicate that about 10% of our graduates during the first decade have entered graduate schools. Many others have assumed positions of responsibility in education, business, the ministry, and other professions.

As we look to the future, we find the role of the private college being more closely examined. One or two guidelines for Methodist College appear clear. We shall remain an institution small enough to establish personal communication among administrators, faculty, and students. Our student activities remain open for participation by all, rather than becoming specialized endeavors. Our curricula offerings will continue to be designed, withing the present framework, to meet the needs of young men and women who will become leaders of Church and State in the days ahead. We look forward to other rewarding decades of accomplishment.

President of Methodist College
